

Konovalov I.A.

Pedagogical social perception of youth aggression

Abstract: The report is devoted to the main results of the research of the team of Academician of RAO A.A. Rean aimed at studying the generalised social perceptions of educators about various aspects of youth aggression. Attention will also be paid to the phenomenon of bullying, role structure and prevalence of this phenomenon. The presentation will consider the key components of the strategy of working with bullying within the educational institution and the educational team.